

Instructions to Candidates on Revised Special Allotment

The Special Allotment for B.Tech Lateral Entry 2026-27, published earlier has been withdrawn and a Revised Special Allotment has been published. The Revised Special Allotment Memo shall be treated as the final and valid allotment.

The college mentioned in the Revised Special Allotment Memo is the only college where the candidate shall take admission. All candidates shall act in accordance with the Revised Special Allotment Memo, irrespective of any admission or transfer made based on the earlier Special Allotment.

If the candidate had cancelled the admission based on the previous special allotment, directions will be given to the institutions to retain the admissions as per the revised special allotment.

Last date for college joining is extended up to 04/08/2026.
